Asia’s #1 Conference
On Open Source

www.opensourceindia.in
Open Source India (OSI) is the premier conference in Asia targeted at nurturing and promoting the Open Source ecosystem in the subcontinent.

Started as LinuxAsia in 2004, OSI has been at the helm of bringing together the Open Source industry and the community since its inception. The 18th edition of OSI, this year, aims to take this event a notch higher by focusing on the Open Source ecosystem in Asia, and more specifically, in India.
OSI 2019 continued its success story in the Silicon Valley of India, Bengaluru. The city lived up to its reputation and played host to some highly technical and engrossing discussions.

Unique Visitors: 2883
Number of speakers: 90+
Number of Exhibitors: 24
